

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you so much for being here today to celebrate this beautiful union. I am deeply honored to stand here and speak on behalf of the bride and groom. Watching their love story unfold has been a privilege, and seeing them together today fills my heart with immense joy.

To [Bride] and [Groom], thank you for showing us the true meaning of love and partnership. Your journey and the bond you share inspire us all. We are grateful to witness the beginning of this new chapter in your lives. To the parents and families who have supported and nurtured them, thank you for raising such incredible individuals who have now become a beautiful couple.

And to all the friends and family, your presence here makes this day even more special.

Let's raise a glass to [Bride] and [Groom]. May your lives together be filled with love, laughter, and endless happiness. Cheers!
