

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, we gather here in solemn gratitude to honor the brave men and women who have served our nation with unwavering courage and dedication. Each of our veterans has played a crucial role in safeguarding the freedoms and values we hold dear.

Their sacrifices, both seen and unseen, remind us of the profound cost of peace. These individuals left behind families and futures to defend our way of life, asking nothing in return but our remembrance and respect. As we stand here today, let us reflect on their immense contributions and express our heartfelt thanks. Our veterans' service exemplifies the highest forms of patriotism and duty. They are the embodiment of honor and resilience.

Let us ensure that their efforts are never forgotten, and let us work together to support them as they have supported us. We owe them a debt of gratitude that can never truly be repaid, but can always be appreciated. Thank you to every veteran for your service, your sacrifice, and your enduring legacy of bravery. We are eternally grateful. Thank you.
