

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering here today. We're united to celebrate the incredible life of our beloved grandmother. Though our hearts are heavy with loss, they are also filled with gratitude for the countless moments she shared with us.

Grandma was the heart and soul of our family, always there with a warm smile and an open heart. Her strength and kindness taught us invaluable lessons, and her love was a constant presence in our lives. She had a special way of making everyone feel cherished.

Today, we say goodbye to a remarkable woman, but her spirit will live on in each of us. Let's cherish the wonderful memories she gifted us and carry forward her legacy of love and compassion.

Thank you, Grandma, for everything. You will forever remain in our hearts.

Thank you.
