

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for coming together today to celebrate not just a milestone, but a cherished journey. As I stand here, I am filled with deep appreciation for the years we have shared.

First and foremost, I want to thank my colleagues and friends who have made every day at work an enjoyable experience. Your support, humor, and camaraderie have been the cornerstones of my career.

I am deeply grateful for the guidance and wisdom of my mentors, who have truly shaped my professional path and inspired me to always strive for excellence.

To my family, thank you for your unwavering support and understanding throughout my career. Your love and encouragement have been invaluable.

I leave today with a heart full of gratitude and a lifetime of memories that I will cherish forever. While my professional chapter is closing, I'm excited about the adventures that await in retirement.

Thank you all once again for being part of this remarkable journey with me.

With sincere appreciation,
