

Ladies and gentlemen,

If I could get your attention between bites of cake and sips of bubbly, I'd like to take a moment to toast these two wonderful people celebrating their anniversary. We'll keep it short and sweet, just like my career as a dance instructor!

It's hard to believe it's been another year already. Time flies when you're having fun, although my math shows they've been happily married for, let's see, at least a hundred dishwasher loads, several disagreements over the best pizza place, and countless Netflix marathons. They're truly a match made in... well, behind the couch because that's where the remote always ends up.

It's been said marriage is like a deck of cards. All you need at the start are two hearts and a diamond. By the end, you'll wish you had a club and a spade. Yet, here they are, still going strong, proving that love truly is the secret ingredient in this crazy recipe we call life. Or was it the recipe for those questionable Sunday morning pancakes?

So, let's raise our glasses to another year filled with love, laughter, and shared passwords. Here's to you both, and to many more years of happiness... or at least having someone who will pretend to laugh at your jokes!

Cheers!
