

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for being here today to celebrate such a special occasion. We are gathered here to shower [Name] with love and good wishes as they prepare to welcome their little bundle of joy into the world.

Family is the heart of everything. It is a source of love, support, and endless joy. Today, as we come together, I am reminded of how lucky we are to have such a wonderful family. Our love for one another is the greatest gift we can give to this new baby, showing them the warmth and comfort of belonging.

To [Name] and [Partner's Name], I wish you boundless happiness. May your journey into parenthood be filled with joyful surprises and precious moments. You are both going to be amazing parents, and your love will no doubt guide your child into becoming a beautiful soul.

Let us all raise our glasses in a toast: To family, to love, and to the new arrival who will be welcomed into our hearts with open arms. Cheers to this joyful journey!

Thank you all.
