

Ladies and Gentlemen,

As I stand before you today, my heart is filled with gratitude and nostalgia. To be inducted into the Hall of Fame is not just an honor, but a journey through time, revisiting the moments that have brought me here. I remember my early days, filled with dreams and aspirations, yet never imagining that they would lead to this moment. The cheers, the challenges, the unwavering support from mentors and family--each step has been a building block on this incredible journey.

To my teammates, whose camaraderie and spirit pushed me to be my best, I share this honor with you. Together, we created memories that will last a lifetime, season by season. And to the fans, whose unwavering faith energized me even in the toughest times, thank you for being the wind beneath my wings.

As I look back, I see a tapestry of cherished moments. Each victory and each defeat played a vital role in shaping who I am today. Being here is not just a personal achievement, but a testament to everyone who believed in me, who stood by me, and who walked with me on this path.

Thank you for this induction into the Hall of Fame. It's not just a recognition of my career, but an acknowledgment of a shared journey.

Here's to the memories we've made and the legacy we leave. Thank you.
