

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, we mark a very special milestone--our 15th anniversary. Over these incredible years, our journey has been defined by growth, learning, and above all, by the loyalty and trust of our valued customers.

Your belief in us has been the bedrock of our success. We are deeply grateful for every interaction, every partnership, and every opportunity you've given us to serve you. It is because of your support that we have reached this remarkable moment.

Thank you for being more than customers. Thank you for being our partners in this journey. Together, we look forward to a future filled with more achievements and stronger connections.

Here's to many more years of shared success and gratitude.

Thank you.