

Ladies and gentlemen,

As we gather here today, a flood of memories rolls over me, each one more cherished than the last. It's hard to believe how quickly time has passed. It feels like just yesterday we were taking our first steps together on this incredible journey.

I remember the laughter shared over countless cups of coffee, the late nights spent diligently working side by side, and the way we always supported one another, no matter the challenge. These moments, however small they seemed then, now shine brightly in my heart as reminders of the bond we've all shared.

Our journey was not just about reaching goals. It was about the friendships we forged, the lessons we learned, and the memories we created along the way. We've built more than just a team; we've built a family.

As I prepare to step away, I do so with a heart full of gratitude for each one of you. The shared experiences and learning will remain with me always, like well-thumbed pages in the book of life. I thank you all for the privilege of being part of this incredible chapter.

While today marks an ending, it is also a beginning--for all of us. New paths await, filled with their own promise and adventure. Though we may part ways, the spirit of our shared journey will always connect us.

Thank you for everything. I will carry each of you with me in spirit, fond memories carefully tucked away, always ready to bring a smile.

With deepest gratitude and warmest wishes,
