

Ladies and gentlemen,

Wow, what a spectacular gathering! I'm thrilled to see so many smiling faces tonight. I hope you're all feeling as excited as I am--or at least as hyped as the kid who's just discovered sugar for the first time! This night is about celebrating achievements, big and small. Whether you've revolutionized your field or just remembered to water your plants every day this week, we're here to say, "Well done!" Tonight, we acknowledge not just the exceptional talent among us, but also the exceptional snacks--thank you, catering team!

Speaking of talent, we have quite the roster of incredible people to recognize. Their hard work and dedication make us all feel inspired and a little bit inadequate. Some might even say they're the reason Google exists--because, clearly, they know all the answers!

As we embark on this award-gifting extravaganza, I invite you to cheer loudly and clap ferociously. Let's make sure the neighbors don't get a good night's sleep--it's important they know how proud we are.

Without further ado, let's dive into recognizing tonight's stars. Don't worry, I'll try to keep this speech short because, let's face it, I know you're all just here for the after-party!

Thank you, and let the festivities begin!
