

Ladies and gentlemen,

I stand before you today, deeply honored and profoundly grateful to be receiving this award. This moment is beyond humbling, and I am so appreciative of the recognition.

First and foremost, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to the organizers and the distinguished panel who considered me worthy of this honor. Your belief in my work is truly inspiring and motivates me to continue on my path with even greater passion.

To my family and friends, your unwavering support has been my foundation. Your encouragement has lifted me through every challenge and celebrated with me in every victory. Thank you for always being there.

To my colleagues and mentors, thank you for your guidance and sharing your wisdom with me. I am enriched and bettered by your generosity and collaboration.

Lastly, to everyone who has been part of this journey, directly or indirectly, this award belongs to all of us. I am grateful to be part of such a fantastic community.

Thank you once again for this incredible honor. I am truly blessed and will cherish this moment forever.

Thank you.
