

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, we gather to celebrate and honor the incredible journey of our beloved parents. As we stand on the threshold of this momentous occasion, our hearts are filled with gratitude and love.

Mom, Dad, every moment spent with you has been a blessing. You have instilled in us values that will guide us throughout our lives, teaching us kindness, resilience, and the importance of family. Your unwavering support and endless sacrifices have shaped us into who we are today. As we move forward, please know that your love and wisdom will continue to light our paths. Though we bid farewell in this gathering, our bonds will only grow stronger.

Thank you for everything, from the bottom of our hearts. We love you dearly.

Here's to cherished memories and new beginnings.