

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for being here tonight to celebrate this special moment with us. We feel incredibly blessed to be surrounded by such wonderful family and friends. Your love and support mean the world to us, and we are deeply grateful for each one of you.

To our families, thank you for your endless guidance and love. You've shaped us into who we are today, and none of this would be possible without your encouragement.

To our friends, thank you for the laughter and the countless memories. Your friendship adds joy to our lives, and we are so lucky to have you by our side.

We are thrilled to embark on this journey together, knowing we have all of you with us. Thank you for making this celebration so special. Here's to many more shared moments and cherished memories ahead.

Cheers!
