

Ladies and gentlemen, gather 'round and lend your ear,
For a tale of love that's blossoming here.
A union destined, written in the stars above,
Two hearts entwined, a symbol of pure love.
Today we celebrate this joyous, golden ring,
A promise of forever, and the happiness it will bring.
Our bride, a vision, radiant and true,
Her heart now shared with her love, a bond they'll pursue.
May their journey together be filled with light and grace,
With laughter and memories time cannot erase.
Raise your glass to this couple, their love an eternal song,
May they find joy and comfort in each other's arms lifelong.
To [Bride's Name] and [Groom's Name], we toast to your new start,
May your engagement be blessed as you journey, heart to heart.
Here's to love's sweet harmony, beautiful and rare,
A celebration of your story, precious beyond compare.
