

My dear children,

Today marks an extraordinary milestone in both of your lives. As you embark on this new journey together, I want to share a few thoughts from the heart. Love is not just about finding the right person, but about creating the right relationship. It is about cherishing each other's differences and growing together through every experience life offers. Remember to always communicate openly, respect each other's dreams, and support one another through thick and thin. Challenges will come, but it's the strength of your commitment that will carry you through. Be each other's greatest friends and champions.

May your life together be filled with laughter, understanding, and an abundance of joy. Congratulations on your engagement and the beautiful future you are about to build together.
