

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, I stand before you with immense gratitude and a heart full of joy as I embark on this new chapter of retirement. It's been a privilege to serve as a nurse, and I am incredibly thankful for every moment spent helping others, learning, and growing.

First and foremost, I want to express my deepest gratitude to my family. You have been my rock, my support, and my inspiration. To my loving spouse, thank you for your unwavering encouragement and patience. To my children, your love and understanding have been my greatest motivation. I couldn't have done it without you.

To my colleagues and friends, thank you for the camaraderie, the laughs, and the support. You made every day brighter and more rewarding, and I cherish the memories we've made together. To every patient who trusted me with their care, it was an honor to be there for you, and you taught me more than words can say.

As I retire, I look forward to spending more quality time with my family, exploring new hobbies, and perhaps taking some well-deserved rest. But know that I will always carry the spirit of care and compassion instilled in me throughout my career.

Thank you all for your love and support. I am truly grateful.

With love and gratitude,
