

**Retirement Speech from the Military****

Ladies and gentlemen,

As I stand before you today, I am filled with deep gratitude and immense honor. My journey in the military has been a profoundly rewarding experience, and I am privileged to have served alongside such exceptional men and women.

First and foremost, I wish to thank my family. Your unwavering support and understanding during my service have been a source of strength and comfort. I couldn't have done this without you.

To my fellow service members, both past and present, it has been an honor to serve alongside each of you. Your commitment and courage inspire me every day, and our shared experiences have forged bonds that I will cherish forever.

I also want to express my gratitude to the leaders and mentors who guided me throughout my career. Your wisdom and encouragement have been invaluable, and I am a better person and soldier because of your guidance.

Finally, to the new generation of service members, I entrust you with our proud legacy. Continue to serve with honor, integrity, and excellence. The future is in your capable hands, and I have no doubt you will meet every challenge with the same tenacity and dedication as those who came before you.

Thank you all for this incredible journey. It has been the honor of a lifetime to serve our great nation.

Thank you.
