

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for joining us today to celebrate my mother's retirement. It's a moment filled with mixed emotions, as we honor the incredible journey she's had throughout her career.

Mom, your dedication, hard work, and kindness have inspired everyone around you. You've been more than just a professional; you've been a mentor, a leader, and a friend to so many. Your commitment and passion have left a lasting impact, and I am so proud of everything you've accomplished.

As you step into this new chapter of life, know that your legacy will continue to touch the lives of others. We're excited to see all the new adventures that await you.

Congratulations on an outstanding career, and here's to a joyful and fulfilling retirement!

Thank you.
