

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, as I stand before you on the brink of retirement, I am filled with a deep sense of gratitude and reflection. It feels surreal to be at this juncture, looking back at a career that has been more fulfilling than I ever imagined.

I want to take this moment to express my heartfelt thanks to each and every one of you. To my colleagues, your support and camaraderie have been the backbone of my professional life. Together, we have shared many successes and overcome numerous challenges, and for that, I am truly grateful.

To my mentors, your guidance and wisdom have been invaluable. You have shaped not only my career but also my life in immeasurable ways. I carry forward the lessons you've imparted with sincere appreciation.

To my family, thank you for your unwavering support and understanding. Your love and encouragement have been my constant source of strength, allowing me to pursue my dreams with confidence.

As I reflect on the years gone by, I cherish the friendships made, the experiences shared, and the laughter that filled the halls. These memories will always hold a special place in my heart.

As I step into the next chapter, I carry with me the warmth and kindness that you have all shown. Though I bid farewell to this career, I take with me the lifelong bonds and invaluable lessons.

Thank you all for being such an important part of my journey. I leave with a heart full of gratitude and a spirit eager for what lies ahead.

Thank you.
