

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering here today. As I stand on the brink of retirement, I feel immense gratitude for the remarkable journey I've had with this incredible team.

Reflecting on my career, I'm filled with cherished memories of our milestones and achievements. Together, we've tackled challenges, celebrated successes, and supported one another through thick and thin. I want to express my deepest appreciation to my colleagues and mentors for their unwavering support and guidance. Your dedication and teamwork have been truly inspiring.

As I embark on this new chapter, know that I will carry the lessons learned and friendships made with me always. I am excited for the adventures ahead, but I will miss each of you dearly.

Thank you for making my time here so special. Wishing you all continued success and happiness.

Cheers!
