

Good morning, team!

First of all, I want to thank each one of you for your dedication and hard work. As we gather here today for our rehearsal, let's focus on supporting one another and making this process as efficient and enjoyable as possible.

Remember, rehearsals are a safe space for exploration and learning. Don't be afraid to ask questions or offer suggestions. Every idea is valued, and together, we can polish our performance to its best.

If any challenges arise, let's tackle them with a positive mindset and collaborate on finding solutions. We are here to guide each other, leaning on our collective strengths.

Let's make the most of our time today. Stay focused, stay positive, and most importantly, let's have fun working together. Looking forward to seeing the magic we create!

Thank you!
