

Ladies and gentlemen, esteemed faculty, dedicated staff, valued students, and honored guests,

Today, I stand before you with a heart full of gratitude and a vision deeply rooted in the principles of diversity and inclusion. It is an immense honor to assume the role of president at this incredible institution.

Our college is a vibrant tapestry woven from numerous threads of unique backgrounds, perspectives, and cultures. I believe that our strength lies in our differences and that true innovation arises when we embrace and celebrate these differences.

As we journey forward together, let us commit to creating a campus where everyone feels valued and respected. We will actively work to ensure that every voice is heard, every story is shared, and every individual feels empowered to contribute their unique gifts to our community.

Together, we will build a future where diversity and inclusion are not just ideals we strive for, but the very essence of who we are. I look forward to embarking on this transformative journey with each and every one of you.

Thank you.
