

Ladies and gentlemen,

As I stand before all of you today, my heart overflows with gratitude and fond memories. Saying goodbye is never easy, and indeed, that's because this place and each one of you has been nothing short of extraordinary in my life.

Over the years, we have shared countless moments of laughter, teamwork, and support. These experiences have not only enriched my career but have also become invaluable treasures in my life's journey. From morning meetings to late-night projects, every challenge was made worthwhile because of the camaraderie and commitment we shared.

I want to take this moment to extend my deepest appreciation to everyone. To my colleagues, for your unwavering support and encouragement -- your friendship has been my greatest reward. And to our wonderful leadership, thank you for nurturing a culture of growth and inspiration.

Though I am stepping into a new chapter, the friendships and bonds we have forged here are something I will carry with me forever. Know that each of you has made an indelible mark on my heart.

Let's not think of this as a farewell, but a celebration of the times we've spent together and the future that awaits us. I look forward to seeing where life's journey takes each of us, and I hope our paths will cross again.

Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for everything.

Wishing you all the best,
