

Opening Address:

Dearly beloved, we gather here today in this sacred space to renew our faith and seek the divine presence among us. We come with open hearts and humble spirits, ready to receive the guidance and peace that only our Creator can bestow. Let us rejoice in this opportunity to worship together, united in love and purpose.

Scripture Reading:

As we turn to the Word, let us hear the wisdom and grace found within the Holy Scriptures. Today we read from Psalm 23: "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul."

Sermon:

Beloved, the words from Psalm 23 remind us of God's unwavering promise to care for us. In moments of doubt and uncertainty, we are assured that we are never alone. Like a shepherd tending to his flock, our Lord guides us, providing us with comfort and protection. As we journey through life's challenges, let us draw strength from this assurance and walk faithfully in His light.

When we are overwhelmed, He offers us rest. When we are lost, He gently leads us back to the path of righteousness. Our task is to trust in Him, to lean on His understanding, and to follow His will with obedience and grace.

Closing Prayer:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for this time of worship and reflection. As we leave this place, may Your teachings stay with us, guiding our actions and thoughts. Grant us wisdom, courage, and a heart that seeks to serve others, reflecting Your love in all that we do. We pray for peace, healing, and unity in our world. In Your holy name, Amen.

Benediction:

May the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Go forth in love and serve the Lord with gladness. Amen.
