

Dear family and friends gathered near,
In this sacred place, love draws us here.
A gentle soul, a precious new light,
Begins their journey, shining so bright.
With water pure, and hearts full of grace,
We welcome this child to a loving embrace.
Like rivers that flow with endless might,
May their path be guided by wisdom and light.
We promise to nurture, to cherish, to guide,
A community standing, forever beside.
For in this moment, as vows softly spoken,
A bond is sealed, unyielding, unbroken.
Bless this dear child with joy and peace,
May laughter and love in their life never cease.
Surrounded by warmth, faith ever near,
In life's grand journey, have no fear.
Let these waters tell tales of renewal and hope,
As this little one learns and grows, how vast is the scope.
Together we'll teach them to dream, to aspire,
To cultivate kindness, to lift and inspire.
So let us rejoice, let joy fill the air,
For today we celebrate a promise rare.
In the heart of this ceremony, sincere and divine,
We welcome this child, a gift most sublime.
