

[Opening]

Hello, everyone. Thank you for gathering here today. We stand shoulder to shoulder, united by a common purpose -- to speak out against war and to advocate for peace.

[Body]

War tears families apart, destroys communities, and leaves deep scars that last for generations. We feel the pain of those who have lost loved ones, those who have been displaced, and those who live in constant fear. Today, we stand in solidarity with them.

Let us use our voices to demand that conflicts be resolved through dialogue and understanding, not violence. We believe in a world where disagreements lead to discussions, not destruction.

[Closing]

Together, we can create change. Let's continue to support one another, to spread the message of peace, and to work tirelessly until war is no longer an option. Thank you for standing with us, for hope, for humanity, and for peace.
