

Brothers and sisters,

We stand here today united and unyielding in our fight for justice and dignity! For too long, our voices have been ignored and our rights overlooked. But no more! We demand fair wages for our hard work! We demand safe and respectful workplaces! We demand the right to organize without fear!

We will not be silenced! We will not back down! This is our time, and together we rise! We are strong, we are resolved, and change is coming! Let's make it clear: we are here to stand up for our rights, and we are not leaving until justice is served! Stand tall, fight hard, and let them hear us roar!

Thank you!
