

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for being here today. Each one of us standing here is a powerful testament to the strength of our community. We march not just against bullying, but for a future where kindness and understanding triumph.

Today, we unite with a single voice to say: Enough is enough. No longer will bullying be tolerated, not in our schools, our workplaces, or our world. Every step we take is a step towards building environments where everyone feels safe, respected, and loved.

To those who have faced bullying: You are brave, you are strong, and you are not alone. Your stories inspire us and remind us of the resilience that lies within each of us. Together, we will create change.

Let us all commit to listening, supporting, and standing up for one another. We have the power to make a difference. This march is just the beginning. Let's continue to advocate, educate, and dedicate ourselves to a future where empathy and acceptance reign.

Thank you for your courage and your commitment. Together, we are unstoppable. Together, we will build a world without bullying.

Thank you.