

Ladies and gentlemen,

If I could have your attention, we are here today to celebrate a very special occasion--the birth of our dear colleague, [Name]. Now, I won't say how many candles are on the cake this year, but let's just say we're glad the fire extinguishers are within reach!

[Name], you are not just a colleague; you're the GPS of our office--always showing us the right direction and sometimes making us reroute when we end up getting lost! Your sense of humor brightens our days, even when the printer jams for the third time before lunch.

Your exceptional work ethic is only matched by your ability to make us laugh until the coffee comes out of our noses. Here's to you, [Name]--a person who somehow manages to balance professionalism with the remarkable skill of being able to find the funny side in everything.

So let's raise a glass to [Name]. May your day be as fabulous as your sense of humor and as productive as your inbox is on a Monday morning.

Happy Birthday!
