

Dear brother, on this special day,
We gather 'round in a joyful display.
With laughter and love, we celebrate you,
From the skies above to the ocean so blue.
Another year older, wiser and bright,
You shine like a star on a clear, moonlit night.
Through thick and thin, you've stood by my side,
In you, dear brother, I always confide.
May your dreams take flight, like birds on the wing,
May happiness touch all the songs that you sing.
Here's to adventures, and joy beyond measure,
To moments we share and memories to treasure.
So let's raise a glass to the one we hold dear,
Happy birthday, dear brother, another great year!
May your journey ahead be happy and long,
Filled with love, laughter, and everything strong.
