

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, we gather not just to say goodbye but to celebrate the memories and friendship we've shared with [Friend's Name]. As [he/she/they] embark on this new journey overseas, there's a bittersweet feeling in the air. We've laughed together, faced challenges side by side, and made memories that will last a lifetime. Remember those late-night talks, spontaneous adventures, and the laughter that echoed through every room we were in? Those moments will forever be cherished.

Though distance might separate us physically, the bond we've created is unbreakable. We'll miss your presence, your smile, and the warmth you bring into our lives. But we are excited for the opportunities and experiences that await you.

So, here's to new adventures, [Friend's Name]. May your journey be filled with incredible stories and may you always know you have a home here with friends who love you.

Good luck and safe travels, dear friend.

Thank you.
