

Ladies and gentlemen, fellow veterans, and dear friends,
Today, we gather to celebrate not just our shared past, but the enduring spirit of camaraderie and hope that unites us all. Our time in service has deeply bonded us, forging friendships that withstand the test of time.

As we reunite, let us reflect on our shared journey, marked by courage, dedication, and sacrifice. We honor those who served alongside us, especially those who gave their all. Their memory inspires us to cherish the peace we enjoy today.

This reunion is a testament to our resilience and a reminder of the better world we strive for--a world where peace prevails over conflict. Together, we continue to support one another, extend a hand to those in need, and champion the values we hold dear.

Let's embrace this opportunity to reconnect, to share stories, laughter, and hope for the days ahead. May our gathering rekindle the bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood, renewing our commitment to peace and unity. Thank you all for your service, your friendship, and the hope you bring to the world. Here's to our continued journey together.

Welcome home.
