

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering here today to honor the memory of an incredible man, my father.

My dad was a beacon of strength and kindness. He was someone who always knew how to make us feel safe and loved. His laughter was infectious, and his wisdom unparalleled. He taught us not just by his words, but by his actions and the way he lived his life--with integrity, compassion, and an unwavering commitment to his family.

I remember our long talks and his gentle guidance through life's challenges. He had a way of making things better just by being there. His stories, filled with humor and life lessons, will forever be cherished in our hearts.

Though he may no longer be with us, his spirit lives on in each one of us. We are his legacy, and it's up to us to carry forward his values and kindness.

Dad, thank you for everything. You will be deeply missed, but your love and memories will remain with us forever. Rest in peace, knowing you are profoundly loved.

Thank you.
