

Ladies and Gentlemen,

We gather here today in memory of a remarkable man, my father. Words fall short in expressing the gratitude I feel for having had him as my guide, mentor, and friend.

He was a man of integrity and kindness, whose love knew no bounds. His laughter filled our hearts with joy, and his wisdom guided us through life's challenges. He taught us the true meaning of courage and resilience.

Though he is no longer with us, his legacy remains in the lessons he imparted and the love he gave so freely. We are grateful for every moment shared and every memory made.

Thank you for being here to celebrate his life and honor his memory. Let us carry forward his spirit of generosity and love in our own lives.

Thank you.
