

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, we gather with heavy hearts to remember our dear classmate, [Name]. It's difficult to put into words the sadness we all feel at this moment. [Name] was not just a classmate, but a friend to many of us, lighting up our days with their kindness and laughter.

In times like these, it's important to come together, to support each other, and to cherish the memories we shared with [Name]. We will always remember their smile, their warmth, and the special way they made us all feel welcomed and valued.

As we go through this tough time, let's keep each other close and share stories of the joy [Name] brought into our lives. We may have lost a friend, but [Name]'s spirit will remain in our hearts forever.

Thank you.
