

Ladies and gentlemen,

As I stand before you today, I'm filled with gratitude for the experiences and memories we've shared. It's with a heavy heart, yet immense appreciation, that I say farewell.

Throughout my time here, I've been fortunate to work alongside incredible individuals who have supported, challenged, and inspired me. Each of you has played a part in making this journey unforgettable.

I am grateful for the opportunities I've had to learn and grow with you. The lessons I've learned will undoubtedly guide me in my future endeavors, and for that, I am truly thankful.

Although I'm moving on to a new chapter, I'll carry with me the friendships and camaraderie we've built. Please know that this is not goodbye, but rather a 'see you later.'

Thank you for everything.

Wishing everyone continued success and happiness,
