

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Today, I stand before you with mixed emotions as I announce my decision to step down as the Ministry Coordinator. This decision has not come easily, but I am guided by the belief in embracing new challenges and opportunities for growth.

Reflecting on my time here, I am immensely proud of what we have achieved together. It has been an incredible journey filled with learning, collaboration, and significant milestones that have made a lasting impact on our community. Our achievements are a testament to the passion and hard work each one of you has contributed.

Looking ahead, I am excited about the future of this ministry. I have full confidence in the talented team that we have built, and I am sure that the foundation we have laid will lead to even greater success. I am committed to ensuring a smooth transition and will offer my full support to my successor.

As I embark on this new chapter, I carry forward valuable experiences and cherished memories. Rest assured that my commitment to this cause remains steadfast, and I look forward to seeing the continued progress and growth from a different perspective.

Thank you all for your dedication, support, and friendship. Here's to a future filled with new beginnings and achievements for everyone.

With gratitude,
