

Dear Beloved Congregation,

I stand before you today with a heart full of gratitude and a spirit of hope, as I announce my decision to step down as your pastor. Serving this community has been one of the greatest joys and privileges of my life, but I feel called to embark on a new chapter in my journey of faith and service.

This decision comes after much prayer and reflection. I am confident that this transition will not only bring new opportunities for growth in my own life but will also pave the way for fresh leadership and renewed energy in our beloved church.

I am so thankful for the love, support, and fellowship we have shared over the years. Together, we have celebrated many joys, faced challenges, and grown in our faith. I am deeply proud of what we have accomplished and am excited to see how this community will continue to thrive and serve with passion.

Please know that I will carry each of you in my heart and prayers as I set forth on this new path. I trust that God has wonderful things in store for this congregation, and I am eager to witness the incredible work that will unfold here.

May we all move forward with hope and faith, embracing the future with open hearts.

Thank you, and God bless.
