

Sure, here is a simple example of a resignation speech in a heartfelt-gratitude tone:

---

Dear Friends and Family,

I hope this message finds you well. Today, I stand before you with a mixture of emotions as I announce my decision to step down as your worship leader. This has not been an easy decision, but it is one I feel is necessary for this new chapter in my life.

First and foremost, I want to express my deep gratitude for each and every one of you. Serving in this role has been one of the greatest honors of my life. Every Sunday, as we lifted our voices together, I witnessed a community bound by love, faith, and an unyielding spirit--qualities that have inspired me every single day.

I am immensely grateful for the support and encouragement I have received from the congregation, the band, and the leadership team. Your trust in my guidance and your passion for worship have made every moment worthwhile.

Though I am stepping down, I promise that my heart remains with this community. I look forward to seeing how God continues to work through all of you in remarkable ways.

Thank you for the incredible journey we've shared. I am endlessly thankful for the memories we've created and the friendships we've forged. May God's peace and love continue to guide us all.

With all my heart,

[Your Name]

---

This is a simple example of how you might convey gratitude in a resignation speech while addressing your community respectfully and warmly.