

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Thank you for gathering here today. It is with a mixture of emotions that I stand before you, for I have decided to resign from my position within our beloved church leadership. This decision did not come easily, but it is made with careful thought and prayer.

Serving this congregation has been one of the greatest honors of my life. Together, we have shared in joys, supported one another in difficult times, and fostered a community built on love and faith. I am deeply grateful for the trust you placed in me and the support you have shown throughout my service.

I believe now is the right time for me to step aside, allowing fresh perspectives and new voices to guide us forward. Our church is blessed with so many talented and dedicated individuals who will continue the work we have started.

This is not a goodbye, but rather a transition. I remain committed to this congregation and look forward to serving alongside you in different capacities and witnessing the incredible work that lies ahead.

Thank you all, once again, for your support, understanding, and prayers. May our community continue to grow in strength and spirit.

With gratitude and faith,
