

Good evening, brothers and sisters,

I want to start by expressing my deep gratitude for the years we've shared together. Being a part of this faith community and having the privilege to serve as your leader has been an incredible journey filled with joy, growth, and fellowship.

Today, I stand before you not as a leader stepping down, but as a fellow member of our cherished community, embracing a new chapter. After much prayer and reflection, I've decided it's time for someone else to guide us forward, bringing fresh energy and vision.

I am confident in the strength and unity of our community. We've achieved so much because we support and uplift one another, embodying the teachings of faith in everything we do. I am immensely proud of the love and commitment that each of you brings to our shared mission.

As I transition into a role alongside you, my prayer is that we continue to walk alongside each other, trusting in God's plan for our future.

Let's support our new leader and continue to build a welcoming and loving place for all.

Thank you for the honor of serving beside you. May our path forward be filled with blessings and the guidance of our faith.

With love and gratitude,

[Your Name]
