

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, I stand before you with mixed emotions as I announce my decision to resign from my position in the Air Force. It has been an honor to serve alongside such dedicated and courageous individuals. As I step down, I am filled with pride for all we have accomplished together.

In looking toward the future, I am confident that the Air Force will continue to evolve and thrive. Our commitment to innovation and adaptability positions us to meet the challenges of tomorrow. From cutting-edge technology to enhanced training practices, the Air Force is embracing what it means to be future-ready.

As I transition to a new chapter, I will always carry with me the values and experiences that the Air Force has instilled in me. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve and will continue supporting our mission in new ways.

Thank you for your dedication, your service, and your unwavering commitment to our nation. The future is bright, and I look forward to seeing all that you will accomplish.

Sincerely,
