

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, I stand before you to announce my resignation. It has been an immense honor and privilege to serve alongside each of you, upholding the values that define our military: integrity, courage, and unwavering commitment to our nation.

Throughout my career, the dedication of our men and women in uniform has inspired me daily. Your bravery, discipline, and camaraderie are what make our forces formidable, and I am grateful to have been a part of this incredible journey.

When I first joined, I sought to serve a cause greater than myself. I found not only a career but a family bonded by honor and duty. Together, we faced challenges head-on, adapted, and emerged stronger. Those experiences have shaped me profoundly, instilling values that will guide me long into the future.

Though I move on today, my support for you remains steadfast. I trust that this institution will continue to uphold the principles that make our military exceptional. Thank you for your trust, dedication, and friendship. Serving alongside you has been the privilege of a lifetime. With deepest respect and gratitude,
