

Ladies and gentlemen,

As I stand before you today, it is with a mix of deep gratitude and immense pride that I announce my retirement from the esteemed ranks of our armed forces. Serving in the army has been the greatest honor of my life, a journey filled with dedication, sacrifice, and countless memorable moments.

Over the years, I have been privileged to work alongside some of the most remarkable men and women, whose courage and unwavering commitment to our mission have inspired me every day. Together, we have faced challenges, celebrated victories, and upheld the values that our army and our nation hold dear.

Reflecting on my time in service, I am deeply proud of what we have achieved together. From key operations to improving the lives of communities worldwide, our efforts have made a tangible difference. These accomplishments are a testament to the collective strength and resilience of each member of our team.

As I embark on this new chapter, I carry with me the lessons learned and the friendships made. I am confident that the future of our armed forces is bright, led by capable leaders and driven by a shared commitment to excellence.

Thank you for the honor of serving with you. It has been a privilege to wear the uniform and to contribute to a cause much greater than myself.

Respectfully,
