

Good afternoon, everyone,

I wanted to take a moment to share something important with all of you. After much thought and consideration, I have decided to resign from my position here at the hospital.

This decision was not made lightly, and it comes with a heavy heart. The time I've spent working alongside each of you has been incredible. The dedication, compassion, and teamwork that I have witnessed here are truly inspiring.

I want to express my deepest gratitude to all of you for the unwavering support, the shared laughs, and the invaluable experiences we have had together. It's the camaraderie and shared mission of providing exceptional care that I'll miss the most.

Though I may be moving on to a new chapter, I will always cherish the memories and the impact we've made together. I am confident that this team will continue to achieve great things and touch the lives of many. Thank you for everything. It has been an honor to work with such an exceptional group of individuals.

Warm regards,
