

Ladies and gentlemen,

I hope you'll allow me a moment to share some important news with you. It is with a heartfelt mix of emotions that I announce my resignation as your volunteer coordinator.

Over the years, this role has been more than just a position for me--it has been a true labor of love. Together, we've created memories, achieved milestones, and made a tangible difference in our community. I am incredibly grateful for every moment shared with such dedicated and inspiring individuals.

The decision to step down was not made lightly, but I believe it's time for me to step back and allow new energy and perspectives to lead us forward.

From the bottom of my heart, thank you for your support, your passion, and your unwavering commitment. I look forward to watching this wonderful community continue to grow and thrive.

Thank you.
