

Ladies and gentlemen,

If I could have your attention, please! As the proud parent of this wonderful groom, I'm thrilled to stand here today. I'm not saying he was always perfect--he did once think "cleaning his room" meant shoving everything under the bed. But somehow, he managed to grow up into the remarkable man standing before us.

[Son's name], you've found a partner who, thankfully, shares in your love of adventure, laughter, and, most importantly, your occasional inability to find where you left your keys. [Bride's name], you look stunning, and I'm so glad to welcome you into our family.

To the happy couple, may your life together be full of joy, love, and lots of laughter. Remember, [Son's name], the secret to a happy marriage is always letting the wife have the last word. Anything beyond that is the start of a new argument!

Cheers to a lifetime of happiness!

Thank you all. Enjoy the celebrations!