

Good evening, esteemed colleagues, beloved staff, cherished students, and dear community members,

As I stand before you today, I find myself reflecting on the incredible journey we have shared together. It is with a heart full of fond memories and gratitude that I announce my decision to retire as your school superintendent.

Reflecting on our years together, I recall the countless faces of enthusiastic learners and dedicated educators who have crossed my path. Each classroom, each conversation in the hallway, and each school event holds a treasured place in my heart. The triumphant cheers on our sports fields and the standing ovations in our auditoriums are echoes that will stay with me forever.

We have navigated times of challenge and celebrated moments of triumph. Together, we embraced new technologies, innovative curricula, and growing diversity, shaping an educational landscape that is vibrant and richly rewarding.

As I prepare to step down, I do so with great pride in what we've accomplished, knowing that our schools are in more than capable hands. I am confident that our shared commitment to excellence will continue to guide this community towards a bright and promising future.

To all of you--teachers, staff, students, and parents--thank you for your unwavering support, your partnership, and your unyielding dedication to education. This community will always hold a special place in my heart, and I look forward to watching your continued success from afar.

Thank you, and let's cherish every moment together until the final bell.

With deepest appreciation,
