

Certainly! Here's an example of a resignation speech with an appreciative and teamwork-focused tone:

Dear Team,

As I stand before you today, it's with mixed emotions that I announce my decision to resign from my position. The past years have been an incredible journey, one that I am grateful to have experienced alongside such a remarkable group of individuals.

Working with each of you has been a true privilege. Your dedication and passion have not only inspired me daily but have also made every challenge feel surmountable and every success worth celebrating. This team embodies true collaboration, and I am proud to have been a part of it.

I want to express heartfelt gratitude for the opportunity to grow both personally and professionally in this supportive environment. The skills and experiences I've gained here are invaluable, and I will carry them with me throughout my career.

While it's time for me to embark on a new chapter, I am confident that this team will continue to achieve great things. I look forward to hearing about all your future successes and staying connected in the years to come.

Thank you once again for all the wonderful memories and for being an extraordinary team. I am truly grateful for the impact each of you has had on my life.

Wishing you all the best,
