

Ladies and gentlemen,

As I stand before you today, I feel a mix of emotions as I announce my decision to step down from my position on the educational board. It has been an incredible journey, filled with challenges and triumphs, and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to have served in this capacity. Throughout my time here, I've had the privilege of working alongside remarkable individuals--each of you dedicated to shaping the future of our education system. Together, we've achieved significant milestones, and I'm proud of what we've accomplished as a team.

While I am stepping away, I am not stepping back. I will continue to support our mission in new ways, and I am excited about the fresh perspectives and ideas that will come with new leadership. Change is vital for growth and progress, and I have every confidence that this board will continue to lead with passion and vision.

As I close this chapter, I encourage each of you to continue pushing boundaries, to innovate, and to inspire. You have the power to create meaningful change, and I believe wholeheartedly in your ability to do so. Thank you for your support, collaboration, and the incredible memories. Here's to the future, and to the continued success of our educational community.

Thank you.
